DMOC readout below. So far no mention of an IRG tomorrow and talk of winding DMOCS down too ☺

DMOC - February 22, 2022

- Rapidly approaching no longer having daily DMOCs.
- Brenda:
 - o Rideau centre incident is not related. Protesters in vankleek hill moved to new location in town. 30 vehicles. No vehicles in Embrun. In Arnprior about 15 passenger vehicles, 1-2 campers. Liaison team engaged with Arnprior protesters who said they were not returning. Increased police presence downtown. RCMP OPP will be engaged for at least the coming week.
 - o Tracking 196 arrests. Media reporting pledge $15K to make sure PK doesn't violate bail.
 - o On accounts - contacted some, most promised not to return to ottawa. Account freeze successful disruption. Yesterday RCMP provided info to unfreeze - some unfrozen. Fis assured us didn't freeze for small donations
 - o Engaged w/ psychologist to develop operational plan around revocation. Contacted earlier today but hasn't responded. Asked how those involved and contemplated involvement might react to lifting, input into timing and pro-active comms strategy. Hoping for report soon. Question - would be interesting to have her come talk to us at some point.
 - o Understand strong desire from LE to public. Will work with partners and Centre.

Messaging will align with OPS.
 - o s.39
 - o What happened to trucks that left Embrun? Answer - don't seem to be going anywhere else, but we are watching.
- CSIS - s.38 ...shared this with RCMP. Some of that on social media.
- Francois - update on litigation - court this morning for case management conference w/ front line nurses. Court will hear motion for stay of EA on Friday but only as it relates to her.

- Briefing to NDP today: Nathalie & Mike- was planned for 30 mins and went 90. Question after question. A bit frustrated that we are not clear on why we assessed that level of threat. They think we should be clearer. Financials catch everyone's attention as well as how fast we are unfreezing. And questions of what OPS didn't do that got us into this situation. IMVE got a fair amount of attention. Threats to some NDP members. Something out there we aren't addressing/don't have the tools to address. They were not pressuring us to revoke. Did have some questions about if ON doesn't extend theirs, would we extend ours?
